PORTRAITS OF F. S. KEY.

My mother, who was the eldest child of Francis Scott Key, author of "The Star-Spangled Banner," and who died September 9th, 1897, at the age of nearly 94 years, told me that John Randolph of Roanoke and her father had their portraits painted for exchange, but that Randolph did not like Key's portrait and gave it to her. It is of small size.

Now I notice in Garland's Life of John Randolph of Roanoke, in a letter from Randolph to Key on page 86 of Volume 2, May 7th, 1816, he writes of the intention of giving the artist—Wood, of Washington, D. C.—a last sitting for his portrait and his expectation of having Key's portrait in return, and in a letter dated Richmond, April 29, 1818, on page 96, he says : "On my arrival here the day before yesterday I found the picture and the picture frame which poor L. left for me. Wood has again failed, but not so entirely as at first. It is you in some of your humors, but neither your serious nor more cheerful face. It shall hang, however, near my bed, and I hope will prove a benefit as well as a pleasure to me."

Now it seems likely that the picture which Randolph gave to my mother was Wood's first and less successful attempt, and if so, that there may be in Virginia his second and better portrait of Key, which Randolph so actually received, framed, at Richmond, and was about to take to his home. Can any of your readers tell where such a portrait may be looked for? It would probably be a small one.

What has become of John Randolph's effects?

Randolph's portrait was in possession of one of Francis Scott Key's grandchildren a few years ago.

Mc Henry Howard,

My mother told me anecdotes about Randolph, who was often at her father's house in Georgetown and was warmly attached to her father and his family. On one occasion he was jostled on the street in Washington by some elaborately dressed member of a foreign diplomatic corps. He turned to his servant Juba and asked in his high voice, "Who's that Juba?" "Dunno, Massa." "Puppy, Juba, hey Juba?" "Speck so, Massa." But I think these anecdotes have appeared in print.

I have some fine engravings which Randolph brought back from Europe and gave to my mother. I have also a number of letters which passed between Randolph and Key—from each to the other.

NOTES FROM THE RECORD OF CHARLES CITY COUNTY.

[The records of Charles City County suffered greatly at the hands of the soldiers of M'Clellan's army. Books and papers of all kinds up to about 1735 were destroyed or carried away. The same fate befel all the will books prior to 1770, and so far as the compiler could discover, there are no deed books prior to 1767 left. The order books (court proceedings) beginning about 1735 are fairly continuous to the end of the colonial period. Of dates later than the Revolution a number of books remain as do many marriage bonds].

RICHARD C. ANDERSON.

In the Virginia Magazine Vol. XX, No. 2, April 1912, p. 191, it is made to appear that Richard C. Anderson was Major in the 6th Virginia Feb. 10, 1778.

He never was in the sixth.

"Department of State,
Washington, D. C.

Richard C. Anderson, Captain Commanding 5th Regiment 2d, June, 1778," W. Hunter, 2d Assist. Sec'y. Commission (which Heitman says he saw) Richard C. Anderson, Major 1st Va. to date from Feb. 10, 1778, issued at Philadelphia 20th March 1779, by His Ex'cy John Jay.

He went into the 1st Virginia and remained as a Major of the 1st until after the war (having for a few weeks obtained permission to be Adjutant-General for General Nelson) —Edward L. Anderson.

VIRGINIA SOLDIERS IN THE REVOLUTION.

It is again a subject of regret that pressure of other work compels Messrs Flagg and Waters to postpone their next instalment to the April Number.

POINDEXTER—JONES.

In vol. XX No. 2. April 1912, this Mag. p. 222, last paragraph is found "Thomas Poindexter, justice of Louisa county, 1766, married Lucy, daughter of Gabriel Jones, 'the Valley Lawyer,' and had issue:— 1. John, — 2. Thomas, born 1760, — 3. Gabriel, born 1758."

I have seen a number of publications giving a brief sketch of this Gabriel Jones, and naming his children, but I have never before read that he had a daughter named Lucy. It would have been impossible for a daughter of his to have been a mother in 1758 or in 1760, for the reason that he did not marry until 1749. (see Publications Southern History Association vol. II No. 2. April 1898, pp. 157-158; Buckners of Virginia and allied families of Strother and Ashby, by Crozier, pp. 222-223.

Margaret Strother, daughter of William Strother³ (Wm.², Wm. ¹), and Margaret Watts, married first, George Mason, April 6, 1744, (see Overwharton Parish Register, Stafford County), married second, Gabriel Jones, "The Valley Lawyer," Oct. 6, 1749. (see Annals of Augusta County, Va., by James A. Waddell, Supplement 1888. pp. 392-3.)

There were several different Gabriel Joneses in Virginia during the lifetime of "The Valley Lawyer." Capt. Gabriel Jones lived in Culpeper county where he died in 1777, testate, and I have just received from the records at Culpeper C. H., a brief abstract of his will as follows —

Will Book 'B' pp. 229-230, will of Gabriel Jones, date, 3rd. Sept. 1776, Mentions Ann Waller as grandmother of Ann Jones, his daughter. If said Ann dies without issue her part to be divided between my living wife and four children,"—Robert, Gabriel, Francis Slaughter, Mary. "In case all die without issue I desire the same may goe Descend & be Divided amongst my four sisters, Lucy Poindexter, Betty Green, Jane Gray, and Dorothy Johnston." (signed) "Gabriel Jones (L. S.)"

"Witnesses, B. Johnston, Wm. Hawkins, Jr., Robt. Gaines, Proven Oct. 20, 1777." (see Notes on Culpeper County, Va., by Green, Part II. p. 51.)

For history of this Jones Family, by Judge John W. Jones, see same book, Part II. pp. 89-94.

An honorable descendant of this Jones family was the late Judge Wm. C. Jones of St. Louis, Mo., who for many years was my warm personal friend.

PRINCE EDWARD COUNTY IN THE FRENCH WAR.

John Morton, Gentleman, who was in the late war between Great Britain and France a Lieutenant in the company of volunteers, By order from Governor Dinwiddie joined Major Andrew Lewis' detachment from the first Virginia Regiment of Regulars raised in the then Colony now Commonwealth, came into Court and made oath that he was an inhabitant of Virginia, and that he served in the office aforesaid, and that this is the first time of his making claim to lands under the King of Great Britain's Proclamation of October 1763, or obtaining a certificate therefor, and that during his continuance in the service he was governed by the Articles of War which governed regular soldiers and received pay as of Lieutenant of Regulars. Ordered that the same be certified.

Thomas Morton, 2nd Lieutenant in same service, made oath to the same as above. Ordered that the same be certified.

Alexander Le Grand, a sergeant in same service, made oath to the same as above. Ordered that the same be certified.

Richard Foster, a private in the (Company) commanded by Captain Samuel Overton, proved in open court that he is a native of Virginia, that he continued in the service during the time of his enlistment and that this is the first time of making claim to lands under the King of Great Britain's Proclamation of October 1763 before any court of record or of obtaining a certificate, therefore ordered that the same be certified.

Henry Pigg, a private in the Second Virginia Regiment, made oath, &c. &c.

Joseph Truman, a private in Captain Obediah Woodson's Company of Volunteers, came into Court and made oath, &c. &c. Order Book, Prince Edward County, January Court, 1780, P. 67.

Freeman Lewelling, John Gaulding, Charles Howell, James Foster, privates in the command of the late Honble William Byrd, Esqr., assign their rights to lands (under the proclamation or the King of Great Britain, October 1763), to Robert Goode Gent.

Jeremiah Penix (Penick) heir at law of Edward Penix, private under the command of the late Honble William Byrd, Esquire, assigns his right to his brother's land, under proclamation of October 1763, to Robert Goode. Order Book, Prince Edward County, February Court, 1780, p. 68.

Declarations of : Jonathan Smith, 1st Lieutenant, John Petty, [?], and Bryant Mc Dearmonroe, privates in the command of the late Colonel Byrd; Samuel Burton, private, in Colonel Washington's command; William Carter, Ezekiel Hendrick, Hezekiah Coleman, Daniel Murray, John Smith, John Tibbs, privates, Colonel Byrd's Command. Order Book, Prince Edward County, March Court 1780, p. 69.

Declarations of Philemon Hawkins, soldier in the command of the late Colonel Byrd; and of Charles Hervey, command of Major Andrew Lewis, in the year 1755, Order Book, Prince Edward County, April Court 1780 and May Court, 1780. p. 73 and p. 77.

[John Morton and Thomas Morton were relations, possibly brothers. For John Morton's services in the Revolution, see Magazine, XVII, 305. Richard Foster and John Morton were Charter trustees of Hampden Sidney College in 1783. In 1780 Richard Foster was chosen a vestryman of St. Patrick's parish, Prince Edward County. John Gaulding, or one of his name, is still remembered in Prince Edward County—there is a jungle on Little Buffalo Creek that the old inhabitants call Galdentown.]

BAYLOR LETTERS.

[After the treaty between the United States and Great Britain which authorized them, many suits were brought in the U. S. Courts by citizens of Great Britain against citizens of the United States to recover pre-Revolutionary debts. Many of these appear in the old records of the United States Courts at Richmond and the papers recorded in the various cases contain much matter of interest. The letters which follow, down to the letter of Edmund Pendleton are copied from the record of a suit against the estate of Col. John Baylor, of "Newmarket", Caroline Co. It is evident that, when copied into the record, portions of the letters had become illegible. The Pendleton and Frere letters were furnished by the late A. G. Baylor.

Col. John Baylor was born May 12, 1705, and died April 16, 1772. He was educated at Putney Grammar School and Caius College, Cambridge; married Frances, daughter of Jacob Walker, and had (with other issue) a son, John, born Sept. 4, 1750, and died Feb. 5, 1808. He married Nov. 8, 1778, 1t St. Olave, Hart Street, London, Frances, daughter of John Norton, of Gould Square, London. Like his father he was educated at Putney and Caius. The relationship to the Freres was through John Norton's mother.

Col. Baylor, the elder, lived in a manner which, followed by the troubled times of Revolution, hopelessly involved his estate. His son on his return to Virginia had to sell much property. The famous Fear-nought was only one of many horses imported by John Baylor, Sr.

A genealogy of the family was published in this Magazine VI, 197 &c., 317 &c.]

MRS. FRANCES BAYLOR TO JOHN BAYLOR.

Virginia New-Market
25. May 1770

My dearest Johnny,

By Mr. Morse I rec'd yr. very kind & dutiful letter and I make no Doubt it would be very agreeable to you to hear oftener from me, but when I consider you hear often from yr dear daddy & well know what a scribe I am [illegible] will excuse it.

I often read yrs. to Mr. Baylor [illegible] greatly to find what an Improvement you [illegible] made in yr studies and could I but see you now & [illegible] and should be heartily satisfied but when I consider ———— 5 years absence without a single glance it almost distracts me but my dear child hope to God all will be for the best.

If you are to be away I highly approve of yr. going to Cambridge The most renowned Seminary of learning in all England.

My dear it does give me more Pleasure to hear of yr health which God of his infinite mercy continue than I can express.

I have by several appor's. heard that yr. affected side is much amended for which God of his infinite mercy be praised.

I am extremely sorry you have been disappointed in not getting the fine choice hams, cyder old brandy and fine Maderia which were packed up & sent to Ayletts Warehouse for you—you may depend upon another attempt this year.

Pray finish your education, my dear as soon as possible for we all cannot bear any longer without seeing you.

I shall write again by Capt. Robertson. We caught a great many redd and Mock'g Birds but by one accident or other lost them all.

The whole Family desire to be remembered to you though none more so than my dear Johnny yr. most tender & affec'e

Mother,
Frances Baylor

Mr. John Backhouse,

Sir,

By Capt. Quincey I rec'd yrs. covering acct, sales and Invoice of goods with which I am highly pleased also very fine horse Fearnought who is much admired by every gentleman that he is a very great Bargain & had he arrived one month sooner would have been much more so. Upon the whole I acknowledge myself much obliged to Mr. Hales and yourself for yr excellent choice * * * * By Capt. Quincey I send you forty and by Clarke ten hhds. of choice heavy stem'd Tobacco which I am in hopes you will think a large remittance notwithstanding I have and shall be oblig'd to draw some Bills on them one to Mr. James Bowie for £100 and 1 to Capt. Quincey for £40. Will you not be astonished when I tell you that I have £3,000 due to me in this country and am oblig'd to draw on you for which reason I am determined to sell most of my Horses, Mares, & Colts of which I have the same value and turn them into slaves—as there is no getting cash here for anything else but Bills of Ex's

Poor Virg'a what art thou come to?..... and held in derision by the merchants of Great Britain, particularly those of the Metropolis and the Factors of Glasgow. Surely this will open the eyes of my dear countrymen and make them more frugal for the future. * * *

I am sorry to trouble you but must begg (in case of an acct. to the Ma'h* [Ship Marlborough] which God forbid) you will be kind enough to send a duplicate of my acct. of sales & Invoice by Clarke that I may know my fate.

Let me entreat you to lend a gracious ear to my Petition in behalf of my dear Friend Col'o B. Moore * * * * You may depend my assistance shall never be wanting towards the dispatch of yr. ships & perhaps much greater than you expect in a year or two as we do rise though slowly every year.

Be so good as to give me yr. opinion of Hemp & Bar Iron not on my own acct but for my friend Col. Moore

Yours J. B.

Excuse me from answering ½ths of your long letter relating to Trade interest & c. You well know the great aversion I allways had not only to that but also to writing of any sort.

Capt. Hooper will deliver you with this four hh'ds of steme'd Tob'o & observing the great & frequent congregation of weavers ab't Westminster should be very of one were I not so deeply in yr debt * * * I shall leave it to your choice * * * * which he wrote me he would doe in a few weeks after you left poor Virg'a The downfall of which seems to me at no great distance unless Manufactories & Hemp added to the greatest Frugality & Industry can save us.

We all join very sincerely in giving you & y'rs. joy of your safe arrival in London & you & my Dear Sister all imaginable joy of yr. fine Boy which with our Loves to you all

Hon'd Sir,

It is with infinite pleasure I acquaint you that I am in hopes to succeed in my present intentions, it being the advice of my Friends when I am settled & which I hope will be in a short Time will give you [illegible] information on that Head.

Mr. Morse has been kind enough to promise that he would deliver this letter safe to you as it wou'd be a kind of introduction to him in our Fami.y which he seems to be fond of, and doubt not but he will comply with his promise.

By Capt. Fox I have wrote you a long Letter which I hope will be agreeable in every respect, it chiefly concerned the future Plan of my Education and doubt not but you will take it into proper consideration.

The taxes will be repealed except that of the Tea.

I have nothing more to say at present worth relating.

My Duty to my Mother, Uncle & Aunt Burwell. Love to my Brothers & sisters.

I remain dear Father

Your most Dutiful Son

pr favor of Mr. Morse

From Edmund Pendleton to Col. Baylor

Feb. 4, 1772.

Dr. Sir,

As I thought you had a good stock of wine, I supposed that article had slipt into yr letter by mistake & exam' the messenger he s'd you had bottled wine & desired if I could not send any wine both jugs might be filled with Rum—From hence I concluded you wanted some common wine for ordinary use to save yr good & as I have none but a little in bottles, I send both jugs in Rum of a little that is left of my old Rum. I have spared you the small jug for your own use, the other is not bad, but not quite so mellow.

If the boy is mistaken about the wine and you are out I will share my small parcel with you rather than you shall suffer. I should have set off for the Assembly to day if the weather had been tolerable and shall go as soon as I think I can travel with a degree of safety.

The General business of the country and not any particular occasion calls us to-gether & I suppose the General Court will terminate our sitting, but I propose if well to visit my family about the 1st of March.

I wish you sincerely a better state of health & am Dr. Sr. yr affecthble-Servt

Edm'd Pendleton.

(Below see copy of an old letter which I got some years ago from Aunt Jane Clayton's in Chesterfield Co, near Richmond Va. and it is from this source I have succeeded in renewing the acquaintance of some of our English relatives by letter after a lapse of nearly eighty or a hundred years. I have heard that there was a letter from Miss Susan Frere written from Gibraltar to some one of the New-Market family about 1830 but that so far as was remembered no one answered it.
